3 INFORMATION TO THE REPORTED PERSON AND RECTIFICATION

If you are subject to a report submitted through the Whistleblower Scheme, you will be notified as soon as possible after an initial investigation has taken place and all relevant evidence is secured. In this connection, you will receive information about:

- The identity of the person(s) who is/are responsible for the investigation of the report
- A description of the contents of the report

As mentioned below in the section about your general rights, you have a right of access to the report that was submitted about you. However, your right to access to the report might be limited in accordance with the Danish Whistleblower Act.

You also have the right to request rectification of the information in the report if you believe this to be false, misleading, or incomplete. If your request in this respect cannot be met, the information will be supplemented with your comments.

4 CONSEQUENCES OF THE PROCESSING

Reports and investigation of reports to the Whistleblower Scheme may have significant consequences for the person who is reported, as reports concern violations or suspected violations of the law, as further outlined in the separate guidelines for the Scheme.

Likewise, a report to the Whistleblower Scheme may have significant consequences for the person who has submitted the report in case of a deliberately false report. Such cases may have criminal consequences and for employees it may also have disciplinary consequences in form of reprimand, warning, dismissal or expulsion depending on the nature of the infringement

5 TRANSFERS TO COUNTRIES OUTSIDE THE EU/EEA

Your personal data will not be transferred to countries outside the EU/EEA.

6 YOUR GENERAL RIGHTS

You have the following rights:

- You have the right to request access to and rectification or deletion of your personal data.
- You also have the right to object to the processing of your personal data and have the processing of your personal data restricted.
- You have the right to receive the personal information provided by yourself in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format (data portability).
- You may always lodge a complaint with a data protection supervisory authority, e.g. The Danish Data Protection Agency.

You are furthermore entitled to dispute our processing of your personal data in the following events:

- If our processing of your personal data is based on the GDPR, Article 6.1 (e) (public interest or exercise of official authority) or Article 6.1 (f) (balancing of interests), see above under legal basis for the processing, you are, at any time, entitled to dispute such processing for reasons related to your particular situation.

There may be conditions or limitations on these rights, e.g., you may not be entitled to deletion of your personal data in a specific case – this depends on the specific circumstances of the processing activities.

You can make use of your rights by contacting compliance@tdcnet.dk. Employees in TDC NET can read about who to contact if they wish to make use of their rights in the data protection regulation, in an appendix in their employment contract.

7 IT POLICY

For employees of TDC NET, reference is made to TDC NET's guidelines "Information Security Handbook" containing information on TDC NET's IT and email policy.
